A rider is a provision of the policy that may have additional costs, limitations, potential benefits and features that should never be confused with the base policy itself. Before evaluating the benefits of a rider, your client should carefully examine the policy to which it is attached.

Certain benefits or riders may have tax implications. Clients should consult with their legal or tax professional prior to purchasing.

Receipt of an accelerated death benefit may be taxable, especially if the insured does not have a prescribed plan of care. Your clients should consult with their personal tax or legal professional before applying for this benefit. They may also lose their right to receive certain public funds such as Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, Supplemental Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and possibly others. These accelerated death benefits are intended to qualify under section 101(g) (26U.S.C. 101(g)) of the Internal Revenue Code. The death benefit will be reduced if an accelerated death benefit is paid. There is no restriction on the use of proceeds of these accelerated death benefits.

² The Waiver of Premium Rider waives premiums if the insured is totally disabled due to injury or sickness for six consecutive months or more, and the injury or sickness commenced before the policy anniversary following the insured's 60th birthday. If premiums are being waived at that time, premiums will continue to be waived for as long as the total disability continues. If total disability commenced after the policy anniversary following the insured's 60th birthday, premiums will continue to be waived up to the policy anniversary date following the insured's 65th birthday.

³ The Accidental Death Benefit Rider pays an additional death benefit upon satisfactory proof that the insured died an accidental death. The insured must have died within 180 days from the date of the accident. The minimum amount is $5,000, and the maximum amount is three times the face amounts up to a maximum of $250,000, whichever is less.

⁴ The Additional Term Insurance Rider is available with Symetra Term Life. Face amount may not exceed the face amount on the base policy. Rider coverage may not be increased. Decreases are permitted only after the first-year anniversary of the rider but may not decrease below $25,000.
